A TRAIN on the Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette Railroad, that was racing with one on the Ohio and Mississippi, near Cincinnati, ran over two men yesterday and killed them instantly. THE Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal says: There is talk here of a meeting of the National Democratic Executive Committee, to be held shortly in this city, for the purpose of issuing an address upon the pending political issues and designed especially to review the treatment of the Southern States by the Radical party, and the causes of the disorders which prevail there.

THE Washington correspondent of the New York Sun says that Sypher, Patterson and Spencer are immensely jubilant over the success of their mission to Long Branch in company with Attorney-General Williams. It is all they wanted or asked for, they say. However, it is quite certain that they would have been thankful for a little more. There is no doubt of the intention of the circular addressed to United States attorneys and marshals, notwithstanding the warning in it against using their power and influence in favor of one political party to the disadvantage of the other. The carper-baggers know very well that they can use the District Attorneys and Marshals as they please.

Perhaps the most mischievous feature of the policy adopted by the government is that it is not to those citizens alone where crimes have been most frequent that troops are to be sent and the marshals made military commanders, but the Attorney-General's circular applies to every State, to every Congressional District where a carpet-bag candidate for Congress may need assistance.

There are a few so-called Democrats in Illinois—paper money men, inflationists who don't like the excellent platform of the Democratic State Convention there, and are ineffectually trying to get up a "bolt" under the name of "Jeffersonian Democrats." THE SOUTHERN CONVENTION.
It is to be held in Chattanooga next month.

Special to the Louisville Courier-Journal.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The next scheme of the carpet-baggers is to have a Southern Convention on the first of October, to conduct an appeal to the people, so as to justify and excuse the military pressure which is to be employed prior to the elections in November. This convention is to be held at Chattanooga, and is to be held at Atlanta, Ga., but have just changed the location to Chattanooga. One of the most amusing and startling stories put out by the carpet-baggers is that there are to be no officers, holders and no thieves in the convention. It has been suggested by some to have the body opened with prayer by the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

MASSACHUSETTS.
Democratic State Convention—A Full Ticket Nominated.
WORCESTER, Sept. 9.—The Massachusetts Democratic State Convention met today, and is largely attended. Everett Saltonstall was chosen President, and he delivered a brief opening address.

After the organization, the Convention nominated Wm. Gaston, of Boston, for Governor, and John A. Andrew, of Springfield, for Lieutenant-Governor. The State ticket was completed as follows: For Secretary of State, Benj. F. Wells, of Williamstown; Auditor, G. O. Rogers, of Newburyport; Attorney-General, Waldo Coburn, of Dedham.

THE PLATFORM.
1. Unwavering devotion and fidelity to the Constitution of the United States as the only guarantee of safety and tranquility to the Union. Equal political rights for all races, colors and conditions of men. To secure a perfect harmony and reconciliation, by which only the Union can be maintained, we openly denounce any and all Federal interference with the popular election in every State, and we heartily condemn the conduct of those who, under any pretense or guise, resort to violence and the use of force to deprive the people of their rights.

2. Speedy resumption of specie payments as a demand by honor and recognized by all civilized nations of the world as a sound and healthy basis of the currency.

3. Firm and unwavering opposition to summary laws, as founded in spirit of oppression and prohibition, and the agencies of despotism and arbitrary power, and we especially oppose the so-called prohibitory law and its accessories, as impudent for good, and powerful for evil—able to private and public morals.

4. A stringent, judicious and efficacious law for the restriction of immigration, and the sale of intoxicating liquor, impartially and faithfully enforced, is the only practical legal restraint against the evil of intemperance.

5. Proper respect for the will of the people, as expressed through their representatives, as opposed to executive interference and arbitrary power.

6. Vigorous reform in State affairs; reduction of expenses and strict economy; the abolition of all unnecessary rings and commissions, including the State militia, and a return to the old and true principle of administration of government by general laws, and its constituted executive and ministerial officers, to be held to a strict accountability.

7. To foster with care the interests of labor as the basis of material prosperity, and of the industrial system, and to secure the most equitable and just division of the products of labor among the various classes of the community.

8. We commend to the cordial support of the voters of the State, the Hon. Wm. W. L. Smith, of Springfield, our candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, and the other candidates for the day nominated. We know and admire their integrity and capacity, and no one need fear that they will repudiate the platform they have solemnly adopted by a unanimous vote, and after choosing a State Central Committee for the ensuing year, the convention dissolved.

NEW YORK.
Liberal State Convention—Adoption of a Platform.
ALBANY, Sept. 9.—The Liberal State Convention met in Tweddell Hall to-day, and was called to order by Gen. Cochran, who made a long address, criticizing the Republican management of the State. He also argued that the Democrats had affiliated with corrupt Republicans in order to carry out their policy of suppression, and claimed that the party was degraded. After a temporary organization was effected and committees appointed the Convention took a recess.

The Convention re-assembled at 4 P. M. and completed the permanent organization pending the arrival of the Committee on Resolutions. Resolutions were adopted, and a platform was called for, and spoke at length, declaring it their duty to nominate a ticket, naming Sanford E. Church and Thos. E. Stewart as the nominees.

Gen. Merrill, from the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following:

1. Resolved, That the Liberal Republicans of the State of New York stand for the defense of constitutional liberty; for a restoration of the delegated power; for a strict accountability of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government; for the realization of a constitutional currency; for the rights and interests of the masses of the people.

2. Resolved, That the administration of President Grant has failed to fulfill the reasonable expectations of the people, that it has pursued a vacillating and imbecile financial policy, subjecting the country to the business of the country into disaster and bankruptcy; that it has invaded the rights of sovereign States, by imposing upon them governors by means of military force; that it has employed spies and informers to plunder our merchants, and establish a system of terrorism; that it has conspired with corrupt men and monopolies to prey upon the community, and has kept in existence in the District of Columbia a rascally and lawless band, although carefully screened by their confederates in Congress, high officers of the government have been proven to be participants in their crimes.

3. Resolved, That the liberty of the press is essential to the security of freedom; that the sedition law of 1818, breeding the freedom of the press, and the press is an infringement of the constitution, which justly exasperated the nation, and was resented by exiles from power by the people of the United States.

4. Resolved, That the Polak-Frelinghuysen bill of 1874, under which an immediate attempt was made to procure the indictment of an obnoxious person, was a measure of oppression, depriving even great peril to our liberties, involving in many cases of the benefit of trial by jury, and transporting the citizen away from his home, and from witnesses by whom his innocence might be established, to a distant place to be tried for pretended offenses; that if a precedent is set, that the tyrannical rule of Great Britain as enumerated in the declaration of independence is a case in point, and that its enactment can only be effectively met by expelling from power both men and party guilty of treason.

5. Resolved, That while we believe that sound money is essential to the prosperity of the country, we further declare our uncompromising hostility to every pretension toward perpetrating power in the hands of the same party, and we declare that such pretension deserves and should receive the indignation and condemnation of the people, who should demand of any party claiming the right to administer the government, that it should be held to a strict accountability.

6. Resolved, That a return of the country to a specie basis is an object of paramount importance; that as the great purpose of money is to serve as a medium of exchange, national integrity demands a speedy return to the sound standard of gold and silver, and the business interests of the country require that a free banking system be established.

7. Resolved, That the acts of Congress providing for the suppression of elections are oppressive, and should be amended or repealed.

8. Resolved, That experience demonstrates the injustice of governing cities and States by legislative commissions, and we advocate the restoration to them of self-government.

9. Resolutions were adopted declaring it inexpedient to make any nominations. A State Central Committee was appointed, and the convention adjourned to meet Sept. 22, at noon.
